

MRS. CHAS. HARRISS PASSES SUNDAY AT EARNSCLIFFE HOME

Wife of Noted Musical
Conductor Was Generous
Patron of Arts and Philanthropies.

HOME WAS SOCIAL CENTER IN OTTAWA

Dr. Charles Harriss, After Hastening From Europe,
Arrived in Time.

Mrs. Ella Beatty Harriss, wife of Dr. Charles Harriss, the well-known composer and musical conductor, passed away at her home, Earncliffe, a few minutes after seven o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness that had lasted since about Christmas. Her death removes one of the most generous and philanthropic of Ottawa's citizens. She was known for her generosity which was not confined to any one social interest, but was open-handed towards anything that stood for the good of the community. Her passing will cause widespread regret because of her wonderful character and gracious sympathy.

She was a generous patron of all the arts, both theatrical and musical, but in the assistance which she gave to her husband in his many world-wide tours was found the direction in which it achieved its greatest results. It was very largely owing to her help and support that the great musical festival in London in celebration of peace in 1919 was made possible.

A Social Center.
Mrs. Harriss had lived at Earncliffe, which was formerly the home of Sir John A. Macdonald, for the past twenty-five years, and her home was always the center of some of the most important social functions. She entertained in a generous way and many well-known visitors from Europe who came to Ottawa were at one time or another among those entertained at Earncliffe.

Dr. Harriss, who was in London when the news of her condition became serious was conveyed to him, left at once for Ottawa, and after racing across the Atlantic was fortunately in time to be at her bedside when she passed away. He reached Ottawa on Saturday.

She was born in Cobourg, Ont., and was the daughter of Dr. John Beatty, for many years professor of chemistry at Victoria College, Cobourg, and of Elizabeth Armstrong, and was of United Empire Loyalist descent. She was first married to Mr. George K. Shoemaker, of Scarier Oaks, Cincinnati, a well-known Pittsburgh steel magnate, and afterwards married Dr. Charles Harriss, first musical director of McGill University Conservatorium of Music, and a conductor of world-wide reputation.

Well-Known Family.
She was predeceased by two well-known sisters, Mrs. John Dainty, of the Poplars, Cobourg, and Madam Girouard, wife of the late Mr. Justice Girouard, of the Supreme Court of Canada, and a member of parliament for many years.

Mrs. Harriss is survived by her husband and two sisters, Mrs. William Macdougall, wife of the late Hon. William Macdougall, C.B., and Mrs. Charles Ryerson of Toronto.

The funeral will be held from Earncliffe on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. A service will be conducted by Major Rev. C. G. Hepburn of All Saints' Anglican church. The body will be taken to Cobourg on Tuesday night, and interment will take place in the family vault there on Wednesday.

CHURCHES ACQUIRE COURTS FOR TENNIS

The young people of Stawerton Presbyterian church have secured a piece of land adjoining the church for use as a tennis court and work will be commenced on it at once to put it in shape for play as soon as possible.

An interesting ceremony and presentation was made in Stawerton Presbyterian Sunday school yesterday afternoon when Mr. W. H. Fitzsimmons was given a gold watch in recognition of his twenty-five years services as superintendent of the school. The presentation was made by Rev. Wesley Meagan on behalf of the teachers and pupils of the school, and addresses touching on the history of the school during the time Mr. Fitzsimmons had been its superintendent were given by Messrs J. Johnston and William Ashe, and Miss Mina McLeod Stewart. Bouquets of flowers were given by Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. H. Scoble as the representatives of the mothers of the church.

Special Mother's Day services were held in the Sunday school of St. Andrew's church, yesterday afternoon, the speaker being Rev. George McDonald, minister of Calvin church, who spoke of the work and love of mothers. In Calvin church Sunday school Rev. Geo. G. Kilpatrick of St. Andrew's church also addressed the pupils on the same topic.

All the Presbyterian churches of the city are planning to commence their Sunday evening services next Sunday at 7:30 owing to the change to Daylight Saving, which takes place on May 17th.

WOULD YOU
BARGAIN WITH LIFE FOR—
Happiness — Luxury —
Social Position?
A picture for every Mother who ever had a Son—for every son who ever had a Mother—
Don't miss it.

IMPERIAL
Mat. 10-15c : Eve. 15-25c
Tax Included.

GIRLS'
and
BOYS'
SHOES
R. MASSON
72 Sparks St.

A. A. TAILLON DIES, A LEADING CITIZEN

Former Manager of Banque
Nationale Was Once Candidate For Mayoralty.

In the death on Sunday at his residence, 46 Marlborough avenue, of Mr. Alphonse Antoine Taillon, Ottawa lost a citizen who was formerly one of its foremost financiers and in recent years a member of the civil service. Mr. Taillon's death followed a lengthy illness and he passed away in the midst of members of the family.

Born in Bytown 75 years ago, the late A. A. Taillon was educated here and when a young man he entered the banking business at Sorel, Que., and about 25 years afterwards returned to Ottawa, where for years he continued in banking circles and later entered the civil service as a translator.

The late Mr. Taillon began his banking career with the Merchants' Bank of Canada at Sorel, Que., in 1867, of which branch four years later he was promoted to be manager. After continuing in that office for nine years he conducted a private banking business for some years.

Due to his thorough knowledge of banking, Mr. Taillon was asked to accept the position of manager of the Ottawa branch of La Banque Nationale, and he returned to the city in 1893 to take over that office. He held it until 1914, when he again went into private practice as a financial agent and stock broker in which he continued for two years.

In 1913 the late Mr. Taillon completed his banking career and entered the Public Works department as a translator in the chief engineer's branch of that department. He continued in that office until his health failed.

In Ottawa, but more so in Sorel, the late Mr. Taillon was quite active in civic affairs. He never held civic office in Ottawa but in 1906 was an unsuccessful candidate. In that year he opposed Mr. J. A. Ellis for mayoralty honors and was defeated by only a small majority.

For three years, however, he was mayor of Sorel, Que., from 1887 to 1890. He was successful in securing the incorporation of Sorel as a city and in 1889 drafted its first charter. For three years prior to seeking mayoralty honors Mr. Taillon was an alderman in the Sorel town council.

A strong Conservative, the late Mr. Taillon took an active part in party affairs prior to entering the civil service. On several occasions he was asked by party friends to seek federal honors both in Ottawa and Richelieu.

Besides his wife, Josephine de Boucherville, a descendant of an old and distinguished Quebec family, the late Mr. Taillon is survived by three sons, Alphonse and George in the United States, and Paul, manager of the Bank of Commerce at Timmins, and four daughters, Miss Josephine Taillon, Mrs. Paul Desautels, Mrs. H. Doyle and Mrs. Armand Mineau, all residing in Ottawa, and one sister, Mrs. H. MacGrady, Hull. He also leaves six grandchildren.

Since his return to Ottawa in 1892 the late A. A. Taillon had been a member of the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic parish, Sandy Hill, and took an active part in the different men's societies in the parish and in the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Mr. Taillon was connected with several local organizations and was quite popular in French-Canadian circles. He was one of the few surviving members of the Cercle des Dix, a literary body organized in the city some years ago. In 1907 he was a promoter of the Ottawa Cobalt Mining and Lumber Company and the year previous of the Federal Colonization and Land Reclaiming Company. He was a director of La Societe du Monument National, a former member of the Central Canada Exhibition Association, member of the committee of management of the Ottawa Tuberculosis Association, and also of the Alliance Francaise. He was a former president of the Institut Canadien Francais, past exalted ruler of the Beneficial Protective Order of Elks, and was vice-president of the Ottawa Summer Carnival in 1907.

In 1889, on the occasion of the unveiling of the Benoit monument, Rev. Father Tabaret, O.M.I., founder of the Ottawa University, where he received his education, Mr. Taillon was called upon to deliver the French class for young women, and afterwards served on the original board of the Y.W.C.A. Ever since she was active on the board of the local King's Daughters, being a leader of the Faithful Workers' Circle until a short time ago. Up to the time of her death she was president of the Westboro branch of the W.C.T.U.

She was a kindly unselfish woman who was a loving mother, a true friend, and a devout Christian, at all times doing for others which made her loved by all who happened across her path.

Her husband predeceased her in 1917. She is survived by a daughter, Miss Lucy B. Sherwood, Ottawa, and two sons, Lawrence H. Sherwood, of Windsor, Ont., and H. Croseley Sherwood, chief of the orders of the day branch of the House of Commons, Mrs. Clara Smith, of Westboro, is a sister.

The funeral will be held at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon from St. Brigid's Y.M.A.

A well balanced program of songs, dances, and recitations was presented on Sunday evening at the weekly concert of the St. Brigid's Young Men's Association held at the Francais theater, Dalhousie street. During the evening the chair was occupied by Mr. W. Scott.

The program, which was received with appreciative applause by an audience that filled the theater, consisted of vocal solos by Mr. Eddie Bambrick, Mr. J. O. Leblanc and Mr. J. Breen; violin solos, Master Max Fogel, Miss Shirley Paddon and Mr. J. Thompson; piano selections by Master James Murray, and Mr. Donald Lynn; recitations by Walter Palmer; and dances by Miss Shirley Paddon, the Misses Jean Day and Audrey McGregor, and Miss Doreen Jarvis. The accompanists were Mr. Charles O'Reilly, Miss V. Lovelle, Miss Noma Paddon, Miss Alice Hebert, and Mr. Donald Lynn.

Doisy Resumes Flight.

PARIS, May 11.—Lieutenant Pelletier Doisy, the French aviator, who is flying from France to Tokio, left Bangkok, Siam, at 7.15 o'clock this morning for Saigon, Cochinchina, according to a dispatch received at the air service offices today from Bangkok.

MRS. E. V. SHERWOOD
PASSES SUDDENLY

The death occurred quite suddenly on Saturday evening at her home, 83 Cartier street, of Mrs. Emily V. Sherwood, widow of the late Harry W. Sherwood. In women's circles in the city, the death of the late Mrs. Sherwood is deeply mourned as during the last thirty years she was most active in philanthropic and charitable work.

Though she had been confined to her bed for the last nine weeks, her death came rather unexpectedly. On Saturday evening about 10.30 o'clock, while listening to a radio concert and talking to her daughter, she suddenly passed away.

The late Mrs. Sherwood was 55 years of age and was a life-long member of Dominion Methodist church. For years she had been connected with the Ladies' Aid and other activities of this church. Having lived at Westboro for several years she became actively associated with the Methodist church there, and at one time was president of the Ladies' Aid.

Before the Ottawa Young Women's Christian Association was organized Mrs. Sherwood was president of the Bertha Wright Bible class for young women, and afterwards served on the original board of the Y.W.C.A. Ever since she was active on the board of the local King's Daughters, being a leader of the Faithful Workers' Circle until a short time ago. Up to the time of her death she was president of the Westboro branch of the W.C.T.U.

She was a kindly unselfish woman who was a loving mother, a true friend, and a devout Christian, at all times doing for others which made her loved by all who happened across her path.

her late residence to Beechwood cemetery. At 2.30 o'clock the funeral service will be conducted at the house by Rev. W. T. G. Brown, pastor of Dominion Methodist church.

H. H. HORSEY PRESIDENT OF QUEEN'S ALUMNI

Mr. Herbert H. Horsey was elected president of the Queen's University Alumni, of Ottawa, at the annual meeting of the society held at the Ottawa Ladies' College Saturday evening.

The retiring president, Mr. J. G. Macphail, was elected honorary president. Mr. Horsey presided over the meeting and Mr. Macphail being out of town. Annual reports were presented and approved. They showed the branch to be in a flourishing condition. Professor E. K. Sandwell, head of the English department of Queen's University, Toronto, gave an address of the duty of university graduates to the community.

Prof. Sandwell said that university graduates in the community were looked up to and it was their duty to lead the community in thought. For this purpose their ideas should be formulated by organizing. Organization will enable them to give public service.

In his remarks, Prof. Sandwell made reference to the resignation this spring of Dr. John Watson, of the philosophy department of the university. Prof. Sandwell paid tribute to the years of hard service which Dr. Watson had given the university. He also referred to the construction of the new library of the university now being built and also the new women's residence.

J. H. Putnam moved a vote of thanks to Prof. Sandwell. The officers elected were as follows: honorary president, Mr. J. G. Macphail; president, Mr. H. H. Horsey; first vice-president, Dr. S. J. Keyes; second vice-president, Mrs. A. H. Brown; third vice-president, Dr. C. H. Bland; fourth vice-president, Mr. A. E. Atwood; secretary, Mr. Frederick A. Sproule; treasurer, Mr. L. G. Keill; executive council, Miss Mary Taylor, Miss May O'Neill, Mr. Oliver Master, Mr. C. J. Montore and Mr. N. Patton.

Late Nap. Moffette.

The Public Works Department lost one of its old and trusted employees in the death at a local hospital on Sunday night of Mr. Napoleon Moffette, 143 George street. Mr. Moffette was 59 years of age and was born in Quebec. At the age of nine he came to Ottawa and when only seventeen years of age started to work in the drafting room of the Public Works Department. Ever since he has been employed in the same branch of the department and through his long service was thoroughly acquainted with matters pertaining to engineering, though he was not a graduate in that profession.

Ever since coming to Ottawa Mr. Moffette had been member of the Basilica parish. Beyond being a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters he was not active in fraternal or club circles.

Besides his widow he is survived by one son, Alfred, Ottawa, two grand-children. Mr. Arthur Cotocago, Ill., and one sister, Mrs. Z. Paris, Ottawa. He also leaves two not yet been made.

BIRD'S
PAROID ROOFING

The only PAROID roofing made in the world is made by Bird & Son. Make sure of getting it by asking your dealer for BIRD'S PAROID—the Roll Roofing that has never failed to give satisfaction for the past 25 years.

Write us for name of your Bird Dealer and Free Booklet—"The right way to lay Roofing".

BIRD & SON, LIMITED
Head Office—Hamilton, Ont.
Factories at Hamilton and Port Hope, Ont.

NO GAS!
AND NOWHERE NEAR THE TOP

3 inches in the tank and still your Ford won't pull the hill. Back up? Walk 2 miles? Swear? Get laughed at?

REMINGTON AUXILIARY will keep you out of trouble. It carries 7-8 miles of gasoline in reserve and will feed on any hill. Better than a vacuum tank and costs less than half as much.

Look it over when you stop for gas. Price $8.50 and worth more than money FOR SALE BY Garage or Accessory Dealers Or Write to Remington Auxiliary, Limited, 35 St. Lawrence Blvd., Montreal.

Every Ford Needs a REMINGTON AUXILIARY More Miles After The Gas Tank Runs Dry

Ottawa's Homes get most of the new Telephones in 1923

RESIDENCE, 86.4% BUSINESS, 13.6%
RESIDENCE, 43.4% BUSINESS, 56.6%
RESIDENCE, 91.2% BUSINESS, 8.8%
RESIDENCE, 71.6% BUSINESS, 28.4%

Of the 2350 net gain in Ottawa's telephones in 1923, 1799 instruments, or 76.55% were in the homes of the city's householders.

As pointed out in the Annual Report of the Bell Telephone Company—"telephone service is now required in homes and small places of business which, a few years ago, could not have been considered as a possible market."

Every new subscriber adds to the value of YOUR telephone

J. A. GORRIE, Jr., District Manager.

CHURCHES ACQUIRE COURTS FOR TENNIS

The young people of Stawerton Presbyterian church have secured a piece of land adjoining the church for use as a tennis court and work will be commenced on it at once to put it in shape for play as soon as possible.

An interesting ceremony and presentation was made in Stawerton Presbyterian Sunday school yesterday afternoon when Mr. W. H. Fitzsimmons was given a gold watch in recognition of his twenty-five years services as superintendent of the school. The presentation was made by Rev. Wesley Meagan on behalf of the teachers and pupils of the school, and addresses touching on the history of the school during the time Mr. Fitzsimmons had been its superintendent were given by Messrs J. Johnston and William Ashe, and Miss Mina McLeod Stewart. Bouquets of flowers were given by Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. H. Scoble as the representatives of the mothers of the church.

Special Mother's Day services were held in the Sunday school of St. Andrew's church, yesterday afternoon, the speaker being Rev. George McDonald, minister of Calvin church, who spoke of the work and love of mothers. In Calvin church Sunday school Rev. Geo. G. Kilpatrick of St. Andrew's church also addressed the pupils on the same topic.

WOULD YOU BARGAIN WITH LIFE FOR— Happiness — Luxury — Social Position? A picture for every Mother who ever had a Son—for every son who ever had a Mother— Don't miss it.

IMPERIAL Mat. 10-15c : Eve. 15-25c Tax Included.

GIRLS' and BOYS' SHOES R. MASSON 72 Sparks St.

MRS. CHAS. HARRISS PASSES SUNDAY AT EARNSCLIFFE HOME

Wife of Noted Musical Conductor Was Generous Patron of Arts and Philanthropies.

HOME WAS SOCIAL CENTER IN OTTAWA

Dr. Charles Harriss, After Hastening From Europe, Arrived in Time.

Mrs. Ella Beatty Harriss, wife of Dr. Charles Harriss, the well-known composer and musical conductor, passed away at her home, Earncliffe, a few minutes after seven o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness that had lasted since about Christmas. Her death removes one of the most generous and philanthropic of Ottawa's citizens. She was known for her generosity which was not confined to any one social interest, but was open-handed towards anything that stood for the good of the community. Her passing will cause widespread regret because of her wonderful character and gracious sympathy.

She was a generous patron of all the arts, both theatrical and musical, but in the assistance which she gave to her husband in his many world-wide tours was found the direction in which it achieved its greatest results. It was very largely owing to her help and support that the great musical festival in London in celebration of peace in 1919 was made possible.

A Social Center.
Mrs. Harriss had lived at Earncliffe, which was formerly the home of Sir John A. Macdonald, for the past twenty-five years, and her home was always the center of some of the most important social functions. She entertained in a generous way and many well-known visitors from Europe who came to Ottawa were at one time or another among those entertained at Earncliffe.

Dr. Harriss, who was in London when the news of her condition became serious was conveyed to him, left at once for Ottawa, and after racing across the Atlantic was fortunately in time to be at her bedside when she passed away. He reached Ottawa on Saturday.

She was born in Cobourg, Ont., and was the daughter of Dr. John Beatty, for many years professor of chemistry at Victoria College, Cobourg, and of Elizabeth Armstrong, and was of United Empire Loyalist descent. She was first married to Mr. George K. Shoemaker, of Scarier Oaks, Cincinnati, a well-known Pittsburgh steel magnate, and afterwards married Dr. Charles Harriss, first musical director of McGill University Conservatorium of Music, and a conductor of world-wide reputation.

Well-Known Family.
She was predeceased by two well-known sisters, Mrs. John Dainty, of the Poplars, Cobourg, and Madam Girouard, wife of the late Mr. Justice Girouard, of the Supreme Court of Canada, and a member of parliament for many years.

Mrs. Harriss is survived by her husband and two sisters, Mrs. William Macdougall, wife of the late Hon. William Macdougall, C.B., and Mrs. Charles Ryerson of Toronto.

The funeral will be held from Earncliffe on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. A service will be conducted by Major Rev. C. G. Hepburn of All Saints' Anglican church. The body will be taken to Cobourg on Tuesday night, and interment will take place in the family vault there on Wednesday.

CHURCHES ACQUIRE COURTS FOR TENNIS

The young people of Stawerton Presbyterian church have secured a piece of land adjoining the church for use as a tennis court and work will be commenced on it at once to put it in shape for play as soon as possible.

An interesting ceremony and presentation was made in Stawerton Presbyterian Sunday school yesterday afternoon when Mr. W. H. Fitzsimmons was given a gold watch in recognition of his twenty-five years services as superintendent of the school. The presentation was made by Rev. Wesley Meagan on behalf of the teachers and pupils of the school, and addresses touching on the history of the school during the time Mr. Fitzsimmons had been its superintendent were given by Messrs J. Johnston and William Ashe, and Miss Mina McLeod Stewart. Bouquets of flowers were given by Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. H. Scoble as the representatives of the mothers of the church.

Special Mother's Day services were held in the Sunday school of St. Andrew's church, yesterday afternoon, the speaker being Rev. George McDonald, minister of Calvin church, who spoke of the work and love of mothers. In Calvin church Sunday school Rev. Geo. G. Kilpatrick of St. Andrew's church also addressed the pupils on the same topic.

WOULD YOU BARGAIN WITH LIFE FOR— Happiness — Luxury — Social Position? A picture for every Mother who ever had a Son—for every son who ever had a Mother— Don't miss it.

IMPERIAL Mat. 10-15c : Eve. 15-25c Tax Included.

GIRLS' and BOYS' SHOES R. MASSON 72 Sparks St.

MRS. CHAS. HARRISS PASSES SUNDAY AT EARNSCLIFFE HOME

Wife of Noted Musical Conductor Was Generous Patron of Arts and Philanthropies.

HOME WAS SOCIAL CENTER IN OTTAWA

Dr. Charles Harriss, After Hastening From Europe, Arrived in Time.

Mrs. Ella Beatty Harriss, wife of Dr. Charles Harriss, the well-known composer and musical conductor, passed away at her home, Earncliffe, a few minutes after seven o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness that had lasted since about Christmas. Her death removes one of the most generous and philanthropic of Ottawa's citizens. She was known for her generosity which was not confined to any one social interest, but was open-handed towards anything that stood for the good of the community. Her passing will cause widespread regret because of her wonderful character and gracious sympathy.

She was a generous patron of all the arts, both theatrical and musical, but in the assistance which she gave to her husband in his many world-wide tours was found the direction in which it achieved its greatest results. It was very largely owing to her help and support that the great musical festival in London in celebration of peace in 1919 was made possible.

A Social Center.
Mrs. Harriss had lived at Earncliffe, which was formerly the home of Sir John A. Macdonald, for the past twenty-five years, and her home was always the center of some of the most important social functions. She entertained in a generous way and many well-known visitors from Europe who came to Ottawa were at one time or another among those entertained at Earncliffe.

Dr. Harriss, who was in London when the news of her condition became serious was conveyed to him, left at once for Ottawa, and after racing across the Atlantic was fortunately in time to be at her bedside when she passed away. He reached Ottawa on Saturday.

She was born in Cobourg, Ont., and was the daughter of Dr. John Beatty, for many years professor of chemistry at Victoria College, Cobourg, and of Elizabeth Armstrong, and was of United Empire Loyalist descent. She was first married to Mr. George K. Shoemaker, of Scarier Oaks, Cincinnati, a well-known Pittsburgh steel magnate, and afterwards married Dr. Charles Harriss, first musical director of McGill University Conservatorium of Music, and a conductor of world-wide reputation.

Well-Known Family.
She was predeceased by two well-known sisters, Mrs. John Dainty, of the Poplars, Cobourg, and Madam Girouard, wife of the late Mr. Justice Girouard, of the Supreme Court of Canada, and a member of parliament for many years.

Mrs. Harriss is survived by her husband and two sisters, Mrs. William Macdougall, wife of the late Hon. William Macdougall, C.B., and Mrs. Charles Ryerson of Toronto.

The funeral will be held from Earncliffe on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. A service will be conducted by Major Rev. C. G. Hepburn of All Saints' Anglican church. The body will be taken to Cobourg on Tuesday night, and interment will take place in the family vault there on Wednesday.

CHURCHES ACQUIRE COURTS FOR TENNIS

The young people of Stawerton Presbyterian church have secured a piece of land adjoining the church for use as a tennis court and work will be commenced on it at once to put it in shape for play as soon as possible.

An interesting ceremony and presentation was made in Stawerton Presbyterian Sunday school yesterday afternoon when Mr. W. H. Fitzsimmons was given a gold watch in recognition of his twenty-five years services as superintendent of the school. The presentation was made by Rev. Wesley Meagan on behalf of the teachers and pupils of the school, and addresses touching on the history of the school during the time Mr. Fitzsimmons had been its superintendent were given by Messrs J. Johnston and William Ashe, and Miss Mina McLeod Stewart. Bouquets of flowers were given by Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. H. Scoble as the representatives of the mothers of the church.

Special Mother's Day services were held in the Sunday school of St. Andrew's church, yesterday afternoon, the speaker being Rev. George McDonald, minister of Calvin church, who spoke of the work and love of mothers. In Calvin church Sunday school Rev. Geo. G. Kilpatrick of St. Andrew's church also addressed the pupils on the same topic.

WOULD YOU BARGAIN WITH LIFE FOR— Happiness — Luxury — Social Position? A picture for every Mother who ever had a Son—for every son who ever had a Mother— Don't miss it.

IMPERIAL Mat. 10-15c : Eve. 15-25c Tax Included.

GIRLS' and BOYS' SHOES R. MASSON 72 Sparks St.

MRS. CHAS. HARRISS PASSES SUNDAY AT EARNSCLIFFE HOME

Wife of Noted Musical Conductor Was Generous Patron of Arts and Philanthropies.

HOME WAS SOCIAL CENTER IN OTTAWA

Dr. Charles Harriss, After Hastening From Europe, Arrived in Time.

Mrs. Ella Beatty Harriss, wife of Dr. Charles Harriss, the well-known composer and musical conductor, passed away at her home, Earncliffe, a few minutes after seven o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness that had lasted since about Christmas. Her death removes one of the most generous and philanthropic of Ottawa's citizens. She was known for her generosity which was not confined to any one social interest, but was open-handed towards anything that stood for the good of the community. Her passing will cause widespread regret because of her wonderful character and gracious sympathy.

She was a generous patron of all the arts, both theatrical and musical, but in the assistance which she gave to her husband in his many world-wide tours was found the direction in which it achieved its greatest results. It was very largely owing to her help and support that the great musical festival in London in celebration of peace in 1919 was made possible.

A Social Center.
Mrs. Harriss had lived at Earncliffe, which was formerly the home of Sir John A. Macdonald, for the past twenty-five years, and her home was always the center of some of the most important social functions. She entertained in a generous way and many well-known visitors from Europe who came to Ottawa were at one time or another among those entertained at Earncliffe.

Dr. Harriss, who was in London when the news of her condition became serious was conveyed to him, left at once for Ottawa, and after racing across the Atlantic was fortunately in time to be at her bedside when she passed away. He reached Ottawa on Saturday.

She was born in Cobourg, Ont., and was the daughter of Dr. John Beatty, for many years professor of chemistry at Victoria College, Cobourg, and of Elizabeth Armstrong, and was of United Empire Loyalist descent. She was first married to Mr. George K. Shoemaker, of Scarier Oaks, Cincinnati, a well-known Pittsburgh steel magnate, and afterwards married Dr. Charles Harriss, first musical director of McGill University Conservatorium of Music, and a conductor of world-wide reputation.

Well-Known Family.
She was predeceased by two well-known sisters, Mrs. John Dainty, of the Poplars, Cobourg, and Madam Girouard, wife of the late Mr. Justice Girouard, of the Supreme Court of Canada, and a member of parliament for many years.

Mrs. Harriss is survived by her husband and two sisters, Mrs. William Macdougall, wife of the late Hon. William Macdougall, C.B., and Mrs. Charles Ryerson of Toronto.

The funeral will be held from Earncliffe on Tuesday afternoon at 4 p.m. A service will be conducted by Major Rev. C. G. Hepburn of All Saints' Anglican church. The body will be taken to Cobourg on Tuesday night, and interment will take place in the family vault there on Wednesday.

CHURCHES ACQUIRE COURTS FOR TENNIS

The young people of Stawerton Presbyterian church have secured a piece of land adjoining the church for use as a tennis court and work will be commenced on it at once to put it in shape for play as soon as possible.

An interesting ceremony and presentation was made in Stawerton Presbyterian Sunday school yesterday afternoon when Mr. W. H. Fitzsimmons was given a gold watch in recognition of his twenty-five years services as superintendent of the school. The presentation was made by Rev. Wesley Meagan on behalf of the teachers and pupils of the school, and addresses touching on the history of the school during the time Mr. Fitzsimmons had been its superintendent were given by Messrs J. Johnston and William Ashe, and Miss Mina McLeod Stewart. Bouquets of flowers were given by Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. H. Scoble as the representatives of the mothers of the church.

Special Mother's Day services were held in the Sunday school of St. Andrew's church, yesterday afternoon, the speaker being Rev. George McDonald, minister of Calvin church, who spoke of the work and love of mothers. In Calvin church Sunday school Rev. Geo. G. Kilpatrick of St. Andrew's church also addressed the pupils on the same topic.

WOULD YOU BARGAIN WITH LIFE FOR— Happiness — Luxury — Social Position? A picture for every Mother who ever had a Son—for every son who ever had a Mother— Don't miss it.

IMPERIAL Mat. 10-15c : Eve. 15-25c Tax Included.

GIRLS' and BOYS' SHOES R. MASSON 72 Sparks St.

MRS. CHAS. HARRISS PASSES SUNDAY AT EARNSCLIFFE HOME

Wife of Noted Musical Conductor Was Generous Patron of Arts and Philanthropies.

HOME WAS SOCIAL CENTER IN OTTAWA

Dr. Charles Harriss, After Hastening From Europe, Arrived in Time.

Mrs. Ella Beatty Harriss, wife of Dr. Charles Harriss, the well-known composer and musical conductor, passed away at her home, Earncliffe, a few minutes after seven o'clock yesterday morning, after an illness that had lasted since about Christmas. Her death removes one of the most generous and philanthropic of Ottawa's citizens. She was known for her generosity which was not confined to any one social interest, but was open-handed towards anything that stood for the good of the community. Her passing will cause widespread regret because of her wonderful character and gracious sympathy.

She was a generous patron of all the arts, both theatrical and musical, but in the assistance which she gave to her husband in his many world-wide tours was found the direction in which it achieved its greatest results. It was very largely owing to her help and support that the great musical festival in London in celebration of peace in 1919 was made possible.

A Social Center.
Mrs. Harriss had lived at Earncliffe, which was formerly the home of Sir John A. Macdonald, for the past twenty-five years, and her home was always the center of some of the most important social functions. She entertained in a generous way and many well-known visitors from Europe who came to Ottawa were at one time or another among those entertained at Earncliffe.

Dr. Harriss, who was in London when the news of her condition became serious was conveyed to him, left at once for Ottawa, and after racing across the Atlantic was fortunately in time to be at her bedside when she passed away. He reached Ottawa on Saturday.