

Urges Building Lecture Is Given Of Air Defences Along U.S. Border

By P. B. Biggins
Speaks on "Christian Science, God's Rich Blessing to Humanity."

In a lecture entitled "Christian Science, God's Rich Blessing to Humanity," at the Chateau Laurier Sunday afternoon, Peter B. Biggins, C.S.B., of Seattle, Wash., said: Christian Science, as discovered and founded by Mary Baker Eddy, brings blessing into the lives of those who receive its healing message, and it is a joy to tell about this blessedness and blessing, Christ Jesus, who understood God so well, has said, "This is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent." This rich blessing, the understanding of eternal life, is gained by knowing God aright. So it is well worth our while to consider the true nature and character of God.

Christian Science teaches that God is divine Principle, the infinite source of origin from whom man proceeds. God is divine Mind, Truth and Love, Spirit, Soul, Life. He is divine intelligence, infinite substance, our Father-Mother, the cause and creator of all that really is. God has revealed Himself throughout succeeding generations of the Christian era, preparing the way to receive Him. Thus there came to Abraham of old a clear revelation of God. Throughout Bible history we note that many a time when God's people were sorely oppressed, by bringing new the promise of deliverance from evil. It took the unerring insight of true womanhood to discern humanity's need today, the need of understanding the science of the Christ, the healing power of Mary Baker Eddy was the one best prepared spiritually to respond to the mandate of good, to do this great and needful work.

Christian Science is not merely "another denomination," it is not "just another sect." Christian Science is the law of Life. When this is seen, the term "Christian Science" will never be used lightly. Words are symbols of thought. The words may be easily spoken, but care and attention are required in order that the thought may be comprehended. How easy it is to speak the word "life." How vast is the true concept of Life! Does it not take such patience, wisdom, fullness, and love to understand Life? Our relations with our fellow men give us continual opportunities to use what we understand of Life. God and of man, who is the true expression of Life. What happiness it gives us when, who is in the simple affairs of daily living, the proof that a valuable rule of Life has been properly applied! What a blessing it is to know that God's law is ever available to solve the problems of human existence! As we each cast out of thought unrighteousness, suspicion, fear, hatred, anger, impurity, intolerance, and every false sense that claim to find lodgment there, remembering that these are not realities, but merely beliefs, then angels come and minister unto us, and we find our lives becoming more harmonious. Our usefulness, work, is less hampered, our helpfulness greatly enhanced. This is the practice of true forgiveness. This is essential to Christian healing and service. Here we see the change that Christian Science is making in individual character and life. In so far as this teaching is faithfully applied, it enters into all the details of one's life, strengthening all that is good, and insuring the success of all righteous endeavor.

COMING TO OTTAWA.
QUEBEC, Jan. 19.—Premier Taschereau made a definite announcement he will be in Ottawa January 28 to attend sessions of the committee that will consider proposed amendments to the British North America Act.

To Ontario Bar Capt. M. Cowley Honored in Death

Last Tribute Paid by Many Friends at Funeral Service.

One of the last of the old-time river captains of the Upper Ottawa river, Captain Mailes Cowley, who died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Clark, 132 Clarendon avenue, on Thursday, was laid to rest Saturday afternoon at Beechwood cemetery. A brief service was conducted at the home of his son, J. A. E. Cowley, 220 Powell avenue, by Rev. Serson Clarke, of St. Luke's church, and the body was taken to St. Luke's church, where the service was conducted by Mr. Clark assisted by Rev. Canon Robert Jefferson.

Among the many floral tributes were pieces from Carleton Lodge, I.O.O.F., Central Lawn Bowling Club, Ottawa Kiwanis Club, Ottawa Rosemount Rebekah Lodge, Mounseur Co-operative Creamery, and others.

Chief Mourners.
Chief mourners and survivors were three daughters, Mrs. Frank Clark and Mrs. Albert Robinson, of Ottawa, and Mrs. J. L. Smith, Pinegrove, Ont.; one son, J. A. E. Cowley, of Ottawa; one brother, Dr. D. K. Cowley, Granby, Que., and a sister, Mrs. George Merryweather, Ottawa. Mrs. Cowley's brothers, Bill, Dan and Bob, all well known in Ottawa sports circles, are grandsons.

With the death of Captain Cowley one of the few remaining links with the days when river boats were the only means of transportation on the Upper Ottawa has been removed. Son of the late Daniel K. Cowley, also a noted river man, Captain Cowley was born in Clarendon township 88 years ago. When a young man he took over his father's business, owning and operating his own steamboat between Arnprior and Portage du Fort, Que., the greater part of his life, carrying both freight and passengers.

During those years Captain Cowley resided in Clarendon and Bristol and there was not a village or hamlet anywhere in the Upper Ottawa district where he was not known. His boyhood candles were still in use in homes for light, and the Ottawa river was the only artery of transportation in that district. Passengers and supplies bound for the Pembroke area and the North were assembled at Arnprior on Lake Deschamps from where they embarked by steamer to the foot of Chats rapids. At this point the three-mile portage was traversed by the famous "horse tram" which was put through in 1832 by James Egan and which linked the Upper and Lower Ottawa. The tram was constructed of iron rails fixed to wooden stringers, and along this crude track light horses, hitched in single file, provided the motive power for the overland haul.

At the upper terminal freight and passengers were again placed aboard steamers bound for Sand Point or Gould's wharf if the shipments were destined for the Ontario shore. The boats were like creaking up the Quebec shore. From Gould's wharf another inland track of 12 miles had to be made (the old Champlain route) to Muskrat Lake where boats were again utilized.

Captain of First Boat.
The first boat plying from Chats Lake to Gould's wharf and Portage du Fort was captained by Daniel K. Cowley. It was known as the "George Buchanan," and was later purchased by D. K. Cowley and subsequently by his son, Captain Mailes Cowley.

On Jan. 19, 1936, Captain Cowley, married Miss Eliza Eaton, daughter of the late George Eaton, of Buckingham and Ottawa. She predeceased her husband by three years. On March 8, 1932, the couple celebrated their 50th anniversary at their home here where friends and relatives from all parts of the Ottawa district gathered to make the occasion a memorable one.

The Cowley family was directly connected with the famous Duke of Wellington and also with Commander Drake of the Royal Navy. Mrs. Daniel K. Cowley, mother of the late Captain Mailes Cowley, was also related to the renowned Scottish poet, "Robbie Burns," by marriage. The family used as its crest that of the Duke of Wellington.

Mrs. Margaret Reid Dies in Manotick Residence
MANOTICK, Ont., Jan. 19.—(Special)—Mrs. Margaret Reid, widow of George Reid, one of Manotick's oldest residents and widely known throughout the Ottawa district, died Saturday at the home of her son-in-law, Dr. T. A. Watterson, here, following a lengthy illness. Mrs. Reid was in her 92nd year and had been in failing health for the past two years.

Born in England, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Pounder, and came to Canada in 1869 with her first husband, Peter Pallister, who died the following year. She resided at North Augusta, Pakenham and Winchester at different times. She was married to George Reid, at Winchester, who predeceased her in 1894. Mrs. Reid moved to Ottawa in 1895 and resided there until coming to Manotick, three years ago. An Anglican in religion, Mrs. Reid attended St. Matthew's church while in Ottawa and took an active interest in the Women's Auxiliary.

She is survived by three sons, W. R. Pallister, of Calgary-Albert G. Pallister, of Edmonton, and Dr. F. Ernest Pallister, of Ottawa; one daughter, Mrs. T. A. Watterson, of Manotick. Another daughter, Miss Edith Pallister, died 25 years ago. A funeral service will be held at the home of John Watterson, Manotick, on Monday evening, at seven o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. William Westell, of the Manotick Anglican church. The funeral will be held from there on Tuesday at 10.30 a.m. to the Anglican cemetery at Pakenham, where interment will take place. Rev. F. H. Wimberley will conduct the graveside service.

MR. OSGOOD HALL.
TORONTO, Jan. 19.—A postman arrived at Osgoode Hall, which houses the Ontario Supreme Court and judicial offices, with a letter from Dayton, Ohio, addressed to "Mr. Osgoode Hall, Registrar, Court in Bankruptcy, Toronto, Ontario, Canada." It was delivered to F. G. Cook, registrar in bankruptcy.

GYPSY GIRL

SYNOPSIS.
Consuelo, a beautiful gypsy girl who longs to dance, is loved by the Dummy, a deaf mute, and Marcu. She is loved by the Dummy, who is fond of her father, Girtza. Marcu tempts Consuelo with a huge diamond and the stress to marry him until she suspects her gypsy sweetheart has tricked her about the diamond. A puzzled frown crossed the girl's face.

"I do not understand this. Why does he send me such lovely things and yet not come near me? I am not good enough, eh?"
"Good enough for me, precious." She sighed.
"You are not my white friend who is a king of the theatrical world."
"Take your time, baby, and you'll see what you want."
She picked up the coat and did not answer him, but to herself she thought, you are right. I will get what I want in full measure or I shall take it. She ran her fingers through the soft fur and skipped into the bedroom.

When she came out the coat was wrapped tightly about her slim body. There were high-heeled slippers on her feet and the sheers of stockings on her legs. The mass of her hair was brushed back from her face and coiled at the nape of her neck and her lips were rouged.
"Hot mama!" Doug whistled through his teeth.
She paraded up and down the room and her walk on the high heels was all out by the same palkie.
"Golly, but you look slick. What magic is this, dear lady, that turns you from a gypsy into a New Yorker with allure in your eyes?"

"Oh, Douglas, do you really think I look nice?" She was like an eager child. She curled up in the chair beside him. "Douglas, my precious darling one," her voice was wheedling. "I am tired of just my things. Please will you take me and let me buy some pretty clothes like the New York gorgias wear? Then perhaps my white friend will come and see me and not leave me alone."
"When you look like that no man could resist you." He kissed her cheek playfully. "Well, kitten, I'll see what can be done."
"You are my darling one now for a certain. Tomorrow we will go to the stores, eh? It is the night after next that I dance before New York, will you let me buy a dress—a night dress—to wear after the show?"

"Evening dress, darling, evening dress." Doug was immersed in thought. He jumped to his feet. "Baby, there's a surprise for you after your opening night. Well, what say you work it double and surprise them?" He was pacing up and down thinking fast. "Yes, sir, baby, we'll put a coop on them." Consuelo did not understand the slang phrases, but she knew she'd get her wish.

Dentists say: MOST BAD BREATH BEGINS WITH THE TEETH... ARE YOU SURE YOUR BREATH IS Sweet?
TRY THIS TOOTHPICK TEST...
Take a toothpick or some UNSCENTED dental floss. Clean between your teeth. Does it reveal small food deposits? Smell it. If it has an unpleasant odour, it means your teeth are improperly cleaned. These food deposits are a common cause of bad breath and tooth decay, dentists say.

CLEAN YOUR TEETH THE COLGATE WAY
Morning and night with Colgate's Dental Cream brush thoroughly the upper teeth from gums down, lower teeth from gums up. Brush the cutting edge of your teeth with a circular motion. Then rinse your mouth. After that put a bit of Colgate's on your tongue and take another sip of water. Gargle well back in the throat, then flush the water through your teeth. Rinse again with clear water.
Colgate's penetrating foam gets into all crevices and between the teeth even where the toothbrush cannot reach. It dissolves odour breeding food deposits and washes them away.

YOU GET THESE COLGATE RESULTS
Your teeth are thoroughly clean. The polishing ingredient in Colgate's, the same one your dentist uses, keeps your teeth white and sparkling. Colgate's delicious peppermint flavor leaves your mouth refreshed and your breath fragrant. And brushing your teeth the Colgate way stimulates the gums.

For those who prefer it, Colgate's Dental Powder will give the same Colgate results. Large tin 20c.

Same Treatment For All Towns

Croll Explains Government Stand on Relief Question.

TORONTO, Jan. 19.—Uniform relief treatment will be accorded all municipalities, regardless of whether their finances are Government supervised, Welfare Minister Croll emphasized in a letter sent during the week-end to clerks of all defaulted municipalities.

After stressing municipal responsibility for relief administration, Mr. Croll warned that any expenditure beyond the provision of provincial regulations would result in a charge-back to the municipality. "If, in any municipality," he wrote, "its council and officials consider increases in any category or categories of relief desirable, provision must be made for the full payment of such increases or additional cost from the revenues of the municipality derived from taxation."

Mr. Croll's letter thus indicated there would be no immediate departure from the existing scale of maximum allowances to which the province would contribute. The letter said all municipalities would be treated alike—but the extras would be a local matter.

OBSERVE CONFIRMATION.
More than 100 guests attended a reception in honor of the confirmation of Leon Lipson, at St. James street synagogue on Sunday evening when Mr. and Mrs. S. Lipson received and a pleasing program was provided. The hall was gaily decorated for the occasion and among those taking part were Rabbi A. H. Freedman, Cantor Rabin and Rev. J. Mirsky. Congratulatory addresses were delivered and best wishes received from many outside points, as well as from the Young Judaeaans of Ottawa. Songs were rendered by Leon Lipson, Cantor Rabin, Mrs. Gunner and Master Max Lipson. Max Bookman was in the chair.

Public Thrilled By Lehmann's Art

Noted Opera Star for Second Tremblay Concert.

The second regular concert of the Tremblay All-Star Series will take place Thursday evening at the Gleebe Collegiate. On that occasion, one of the most perfect singers ever heard here or anywhere, Lotte Lehmann, prima donna of the Metropolitan, will offer a program of exceptional interest and charm, made up of operatic arias, English songs, German lieder, Italian and French pieces.

Speaking of Madame Lehmann as a concert singer, Olin Downes writes in the New York Times as follows in a review of one of her recent recitals: "The audience was not only impressed, but thrilled. It has been a good many years since any New York song recital has offered such excitement and distinction. She swept her listeners from their feet. She has a voice of magnificent range and color. She herself is a woman of superb temperament. At her height she displayed interpretative genius—nothing less."

In opera, she is one of those rare artists who can save a performance from mediocrity through the sheer perfection of her singing and acting. In the New York Times of December 27th last, Olin Downes reports one such occasion: "The cast was a strong one," says he, "and promised much in worthwhile singing, but it proved disappointing on the whole with the great exception of Lotte Lehmann, who was in magnificent voice and gave a memorable interpretation of Elizabeth's music. Rarely is so penetrating an insight brought to the realm of the mainly heroic's measures. Here was great art in the best tradition of song, combined with a flawless diction that made every syllable inevitably audible throughout the vast auditorium."

The box office will open Wednesday, 10 a.m., at Lindsay's, both for subscribers and the general public. Subscribers are asked to come for their tickets before 3 p.m., Thursday, as there is always a rush at that hour and there is no need for them to wait in line provided they come early Wednesday or Thursday.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

Board of Control is recommending to City Council that Miss M. F. Bennett be taken into the civic service as investigator under the Mothers' Allowances Act, at the same salary she has received as investigator for the province, $1,500 per annum. The change is required since the province has decided that hereafter the cost of administration under the Act must be borne by the municipalities.

Flush Kidneys of poisons and stop getting up at night

Having tested "Auric" in thousands of cases at the Invalids Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. I have distributed to the Drug Trade the latest and perhaps the most important of the Dr. Pierce home remedies, "Auric," which I now recommend for the relief of kidney irregularities, those who have irregularly disturbed, nervous, sleep, depression, aches, pains, drowsiness, dizziness, will find this stimulant diuretic beneficial. It cleanses the kidneys, dilating and relieving irritation. Taking a cup of hot water and Dr. Pierce's "Auric" will bring remarkably quick improvement. Buy of your neighborhood druggist now.
